

Quercus 2000

The Third International Oak Conference

---

Early November, 2000

(Seed Season in North Carolina!!)

- ◆ Field trips to see 40 oak species in three states
- ◆ Seed exchange and plant sale
- ◆ Oak-related exhibits and poster presentations
- ◆ Seminars emphasizing oak ecology, pathology, taxonomy, conservation, and propagation
- ◆ Visits to nurseries, gardens, ancient specimen trees, and a USDA plant introduction station
- ◆ Tours of natural oak habitats, including mountains, swamps, sand hills scrub, and Atlantic coast
- ◆ Opportunities to meet members from many nations worldwide

Watch for upcoming information from the

International Oak Society

Donations/Membership

The International Oak Society is a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization, and additional contributions are fully tax deductible under the U.S. Internal Revenue Code. Contributors may choose to help support educational conference expenses, publications, or the general operating budget.

All transactions must be in U.S. dollars. Please pay by money order or check payable to "International Oak Society," and send the payment together with your order, name, address, telephone, fax and/or e-mail address to Dr. Richard Jensen at the Membership Office. To pay by VISA or MasterCard, send a letter or fax indicating payment of membership dues and/or other specified items, the amount being paid, the credit card number and expiration date, and your signature as authorization to charge the amount to your account.